

February 2022

Centers and Schools Celebrate Black History Month

We serve children with a wide range of cultural backgrounds, and it's important for them to understand all aspects of history so they can develop empathy and become strong leaders. From creating videos to writing essays, see how our children are learning about Black History this month.

Read More

RCMA Staff Meet with Legislators

Each year when the Florida Legislature is in session, Children's Week is held to celebrate and honor the state's commitment to children, youth and their advocates. RCMA staff met with legislators, and our children sent their handprints for a colorful display at the Capitol. Read more about the impact of this event.

Read More

Education is Important for RCMA Staff, Too

Associate Executive Director Kathy Vega, who is earning her bachelor's degree this spring, is a great example of how RCMA encourages education not only among its students but also its employees. Read her inspiring story.

Read More

24-hour Giving Challenge is Successful

Thanks to 99 donors - including a significant contribution from Lipman Family Farms - we raised $128,760 during the Give Where You Live Collier 24-hour giving challenge earlier this month. Read why this event for 40 charities is important to RCMA kids and families.

Read More

Click here to unsubscribe from our newsletter.

Let's be social

402 W. Main St. Immokalee, FL 34142 | (800) 282-6540

RCMA is a non-profit, non-sectarian organization. | Copyright 2022 © RCMA

