Christmas
CARDS
DESIGNED BY RCMA KIDS

2022

Noemi drew her Christmas Tree as an 11 year old 5th grader at an RCMA afterschool program in Dade City. Noemi's favorite subject is math and she wants to be a teacher when she grows up. When not at school, Noemi likes to watch TV, play video games and help at home with the cooking and cleaning. Her parents work in a plant nursery.

RCMA provides quality early childhood programs, education, and support services to rural low-income children, ages infant through eighth grade. Using a thematic and integrative approach, RCMA focuses early on language and math while increasing self-esteem and social skills.
